7. Discussion: Jack Benjamin: One line with no funds—transportation and expenses of the staff who run the convention. He re-entered the same dollar amount in line 240: 8,500 dollars. 2677.75 surplus at the end of the time there.
Any discussion? None
Motion: Move we accept budget as presented.
Greg: Discussion: West Virginia: Don't like the membership increase because of economic times. Alan asked to share the rationale of the proposed increase:

DISCUSSION OF FEE INCREASE: Initially the increase in membership dues—first since mid 1990. Not added anything for some time. Costs going up. Want to stay sound as an organization. Fiscally sound. We are required as a board to have a balanced budget. To balance budget we've had to transfer funds from our reserve to balance budget. We can have a surplus instead of a deficit. Betsey fine steward of our funds. Want to stay on positive side/not negative side. (Explanation from Jack). Keeping staff and great service. Small office staff for number of folks served.

Alan Litsey: Wants to protect benefits we have. Exploring new benefits. Add year round services. Ability to move forward with needs of the constituency. Fees significantly higher. Bill Mitchell, our strategic planner, was amazed at low price.

Jack Benjamin: Not always an easy sell to be the cheapest game in town. Chris: A number of folks here for the first time. Excited about what they are getting based on price. Real value. Committed to coming back to Atlanta. To grow organization we are balancing how much we can grow financially—a minor increase on a good deal. Jack: get budget requests in. Fervently want to hold on to making this affordable for our students, for generations to come together, to move the art form forward.

Anna Filippo: Asked about opportunity to volunteer, and we discussed that. Greg Mach from W VA: wondered about why now...

Last few years, very solid. Stable time for us.

Motion to approve budget unanimously approved.

8. ITEMS FOR DISCUSSION: Chris Rich: Observer in division meetings: Things put off year after year. Some division work may be done in the days here about things that need to move forward. Use conference to make projects happen—begin to meet earlier and finish by the conference.

Meeting Adjourned: 11:23
