

SOUTHEASTERN THEATRE CONFERENCE
Sara Spencer Child Drama Award
Nomination Form

Theatre for Young People is of vital importance to the entire field of theatre, it is often those first experiences with theatre that can fuel a love and life long passion for the art form. The Sara Spencer Child Drama Award recognizes the work of an individual or organization for dynamic and engaging work for young people. Nominees can excel in such areas as playwriting, performance, audience development, curriculum development, funding, scholarship, community programs, research, television programming, creative drama or other enrichment programs within their community, state, or regional or national level.

The SETC award honors children's theatre pioneer and publisher Sara Spencer. Past recipients include: Theatre IV, Judith Kase-Polisini, Stage One: Louisville Children's Theatre, NC Theatre for Young People, Al Cohen, Roger Bedard, Barbara Britton, Tom Behm, Ann Hill, Orlin Corey, Birmingham Children's Theatre, Patricia Whitton, Elizabeth Rike, Lexington Children's Theatre, The Department of Dramatic Arts at the University of South Alabama, Fort Lauderdale Children's Theatre, The Chattanooga Theatre Centre's Youth Theatre and Children's Theatre of Charlotte.
