

Southeastern Theatre Conference
History/Theory/Criticism/Literature Committee
call for papers for
2011 YOUNG SCHOLAR'S AWARD

We invite submissions from graduate students and undergraduate students enrolled in programs as of Nov 22, 2010 relating to our committee interest areas of history, theory, criticism, and literature. One graduate and one undergraduate paper will be chosen to win $225 cash prizes, a ticket to the States Luncheon, and to present their winning papers at the 2011 SETC conference in Atlanta, GA.*

Though our interest area is committed to the scholarly exploration of the issues that revolve around any and every theatre presentation, and though we focus on traditional studies in history, theory, criticism, and literature, we are also interested in contemporary subjects including: who teaches history, how we teach history, pedagogy, praxis vs. theory, censorship, telling/selling history, subjects that support as well as resist traditional approaches to history, theory, criticism and literature. Papers should be presentation length of 20 minutes/no more than 10 pages in length.

Deadline for submission: November 22, 2010 5pm EST.

Please submit by the deadline: your name and contact information (including email address, phone number, degree you are seeking, and school attending) one electronic copy attached to an email in Microsoft Word format, MLA style. No attached photographs or diagrams, papers only.

Dr. Dawn Larsen
llarsen@fmarion.edu

*Winners must attend the 2011 conference to present their winning entry at the Young Scholars Award panel in March 2011 in order to accept prize money. Winners will also have the opportunity to attend the States Luncheon.

For more information contact Dr. Dawn Larsen at llarsen@fmarion.edu